

Fencing our streams, clean.

When you fence off rivers and streams with quality fencing products, you help keep our New Zealand waterways clean and pristine.

Wiremark are keen supporters of the 'clean streams' initiative, and have the right product and advice to help eco manage waterways on your farm or lifestyle property, and how to apply for a grant. Make a difference and protect water quality now and into the future.

For further information contact sales@pacificsteel.co.nz

